Summary of Tournament Details

The University of the Philippines Tacloban Debate Society (UPTDS), the top debating varsity in Eastern Visayas, brought the art of debating in the region. Eastern Visayas is a home to many debaters with growing potential and talent. Thus, this event is geared towards honing high school and college debaters to their fullest capabilities through a workshop.

The tournament, entitled “14th Eastern Visayas Debate Championship: Imagine A World” will be held from February 7-9, at the Multi-Purpose Building of the University of the Philippines Visayas Tacloban College. Three (3) nationally and internationally-acclaimed debaters from the Philippine Debate Union (PDU) will be invited as speakers and judges in this three-day event. The speakers are expected to discuss special topics assigned to them by the organizing committee through a Debate and Adjudication Seminar. The tournament will follow a strict schedule which includes a debate seminar, adjudicator test, and first debate round on the first day, the three debate rounds in the second day, semi-finals and finals, and championship dinner in the third and last day.

The suggested speakers are Rene Gandeza, Akeem Fabilla, and Kershey Duenas. Meanwhile, the topics that will be presented will be as follows: How to Effectively Use and Combat Matter, What to Argue and How to Do it, How to Prep Efficiently, How to Create Effective Rebuttals, How to Win as a Closing Team and Points on Adjudication. The speakers can add topics they would deem necessary.

Students from high schools, colleges, and universities in the region, whether public or private, are expected to participate. Each participating individual must pay a corresponding registration fee to be able to join the workshop. Two (2) registration packages have been prepared. First, for participants who would wish to stay-out or would not avail of hotel accommodations, a registration fee of Php 1,500 inclusive of two (3) lunches, four (55) snacks, and a debate kit, tournament ID, access to debate seminar and championship dinner, must be paid. For observers, a registration fee of Php 700 inclusive of 5 snacks, tournament ID, Debate kits and access to debate seminar.

This tournament has two main objectives. First, it aims to strengthen debating as a sport in Region VIII. This objective is specifically targets both high schools and colleges in the region with already existing and active debate societies or organizations. UPTDS believes that this workshop will be an opportunity for students to develop their skills in debating and adjudicating. Secondly, this tournament also aims to introduce debate and public discourse to secondary and tertiary schools without existing debate societies. This objective is also in line with the organization’s vision of igniting the passion of the youth to be more socially involved in relevant discussion of current issues and also to help develop the stance of the youth on topics of important societal concern.

Finally, this activity is non-profit and is only directed to serving the best interest of the youth sector through debate as a medium
