The Office of the Regional Director
Department of Education

Dear Sir/Madam:

We hope that this letter finds you in good health and best of spirit!

Braving the K-12 Education in the Philippines amidst the pandemic is a daunting task to many school stakeholders especially to our teachers. Teachers and students are confronted with diverse challenges in the implementation of the Learning Continuity Plan. The Center for Human Research and Development Foundation CHRDF Inc. as an organization supports the Department of Education and Commission on Higher Education in their mission to uphold everyone's right to education thus, we will conduct a National Conference & Webinar Series on Homeroom Program towards Student Formation on December 8-10, 2020 via Zoom App. The theme of the conference is "Bridging Effective Learning and Digital Lifestyles among the Learners Today through the Homeroom Program."

This national conference is designed based on the increasing need to understand the learners today and exploring evidence-based approach in addressing diversity and promoting inclusive education. The following are set as conference objectives:

1. Unpack Whole Child Approach to effectively implement & conduct homeroom modules and sessions;
2. Promote Social Emotional Learning as a way of life that foster resilience and grit among students; and
3. Strengthen family engagement in education to solve study habits and discipline problems;

Program of Activities
