SUBJECT: Pilot Test of the Monitoring and Evaluation Tool of the MELCs Implementation

DATE: 23 November 2020

The Department of Education, through the Bureau of Curriculum Development (BCD), will conduct the Pilot Testing of the Monitoring and Evaluation Tool for the Most Essential Learning Competencies (MELCs) implementation. The survey is intended to help the Bureau gather essential information that will be useful in formulating curriculum policy in the future. Pilot testing of the tool is scheduled on December 1 – 9, 2020.

The following regions are selected to participate in the pilot testing: Region I, VIII, CARAGA and NCR. The Regional Office is requested to identify 164 teacher-respondents for the pilot test who will be representatives of each learning area for every grade levels. The respondents may come from the same division. Specific details on the target number of respondents per region is reflected in the enclosure.

The respondents' involvement in this pilot testing of the survey tool will provide significant input on items which need to be modified or enhanced. Therefore, items must be answered truthfully and instructions must be read thoroughly by the respondents while taking the survey.

The identified participants per region are requested to answer the survey using this link: <http://deped.in/w38FX0B>.

For additional information, please contact Dr. Isabel A. Victorino or Mr. Mark Anthony V. Bercando at (02) 8632-7746 or through email isabel.victorino@deped.gov.ph or mark.bercando@deped.gov.ph

Immediate dissemination and compliance is desired.
