This has reference to the communication from the Department of Foreign Affairs regarding the call for nomination for the ASEAN Prize 2021.

The ASEAN Prize recognizes inspiring achievements and exemplary contributions of an individual or organization in fostering the ASEAN identity, promoting the ASEAN spirit and championing the ASEAN way. A Judging Committee, consisting of eminent high-level members, including incumbent and former ASEAN Secretaries-General, will select a recipient who will be awarded the ASEAN Prize Trophy and a cash prize of US$20,000.

This year's prize will be presented during the 54th ASEAN Ministerial Meeting in Bandar Seri Begawan, Brunei Darussalam. Since its inception, the ASEAN Prize has been awarded to three recipients, namely, Filipina autism advocate Erlinda Uy-Koe, for her dedication to enhance autism awareness which impacted the lives of thousands of autistic children and adults in the region; Dr. Jemilah Mahmood from Malaysia, for her contributions in championing humanitarian responses across the region and the world, and the ASEAN Studies Centre from the ISEAS-Yusof Ishak Institute of Singapore for its dedication in promoting awareness of, and regional integration in ASEAN.

To be eligible, the nominee must be a Filipino citizen or an organisation created or led by the Philippines. The nominee must show his/her or the organisation's verifiable achievements in promoting intra-ASEAN collaboration and the impacts that have been made on ASEAN. The nominee should also share his/her/organisation's future plans in continuing the work after winning the Prize.

In this regard, we would like to request for your assistance in disseminating information on the call for nomination to interested parties in the Department. Interested parties must submit the fully accomplished Nomination Form, along with the supporting documents as stated in the Form, to the International Cooperation Office via email for consideration of the DepEd ASEAN Prize Screening Committee. The deadline of submission of nominations the International Cooperation Office is on 2 April 2021, Friday.

Attached are the relevant documents and guidelines for the nomination. For more information and clarifications on the criteria and selection process of the Prize, interested parties may refer to the official website at <https://asean.org/asean-prize/> or contact the International Cooperation Office (ICO) at email address: ico@deped.gov.ph.

Thank you very much.

Call for Nominations: ASEAN Prize 2021

JAKARTA, 1 February 2021 – Today, ASEAN launched its call for nominations for ASEAN Prize 2021.

Now in its fourth year, the prestigious regional award acknowledges outstanding ASEAN citizens or ASEAN-based organisations who have made exceptional contribution and shown exemplary work in strengthening the ASEAN community building, promoting regional integration, fostering inclusivity and raising ASEAN awareness.

The Community Affairs Director of ASEAN Secretariat Lee Yoong Yoong, who oversees the ASEAN Prize administration, said: “After a challenging 2020, ASEAN Prize 2021 is an opportunity to celebrate the indomitable spirit of ASEAN citizens in helping to improve our lives as a community. We hope to identify and recognise another ASEAN champion to inspire the region as we journey together towards post-pandemic recovery.”

According to the rules, the nomination should be submitted by at least one reference. Submissions must include the summary or highlights of the nominee’s achievements and relevant supporting documents since the launch of the ASEAN Community on 31 December 2015.

The Judging Committee, chaired by the Secretary-General of ASEAN, Dato Lim Jock Hoi, and his predecessors, will review the nominations and select the ASEAN Prize 2021 Recipient, who will receive the ASEAN Prize trophy to be presented at the 54th ASEAN Ministerial Meeting in Bandar Seri Begawan, Brunei Darussalam, and a US$20,000 cash prize. The ASEAN Prize is supported by Temasek Foundation, Singapore and Yayasan Hasanah of Malaysia.

Since its establishment, ASEAN Prize has been awarded to three recipients. In 2018, Erlinda Koe from the Philippines was the Prize’s inaugural recipient in recognition of her efforts to build an inclusive ASEAN Community by raising awareness on autism. The following year, Dr. Jemilah Mahmood, an ardent humanitarian leader from Malaysia, received the Prize for her contributions in championing humanitarian responses across the region and the world. Last year, the ASEAN Studies Centre from the ISEAS-Yusof Ishak Institute of Singapore was awarded the Prize for their long-standing work in promoting regional integration in ASEAN.
