Dear Director Ledesma:

Greetings!

The outbreak of Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) prompted a sense of uncertainty and negativity among Filipinos. The Department of Health (DOH) recognized that the people's total well-being has also been challenged by the pandemic, not only their livelihood and daily activities. For this, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) asserted that "people around the world turned to culture for comfort and to overcome social isolation." Such assertion highlighted that culture, the arts, and creative processes made people more resilient; virtual concerts, online exhibitions, and spontaneous performances proved that arts gave comfort and means for survival.

Banking on the role that culture and values play in the people's response to the pandemic, the National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA) and the Eastern Visayas Regional Development Council (RDC VIII) would like to invite the Department of Education Regional Office VIII (DepEd VIII) to "A Culture that Heals: The NCCA-RDC VIII Webinar on Filipino Values and Culture in the Time of Pandemic". This webinar will be held on March 24, 2021, from 09:00 AM to 04:00 PM.

We would also like to enjoin teachers from all branches of basic education – elementary, junior high school, senior high school, special education (SPED), and special program for the arts (SPA) – to attend said webinar. The webinar topics will be valuable inputs that will help educators integrate culture and values in their teaching strategies.

We request, partly for security reason, that all participants pre-register through the link <https://bit.ly/2ZF8MZI>. A link to the said webinar will be provided to the confirmed registered participants through email. The webinar is open for multiple participants from your organization/agency. You may coordinate with Ms. Karen M. Reduban and/or Ma. Joyce G. Vitor at 09770095106/09163835514, or email at sdviiisecretariat@gmail.com, for any inquiries and clarifications. The webinar program has been attached to this communication for your reference.

We are hoping that you can join us on the March 24. Allow us to thank you in advance.

Sincerely,

ATTY. BONIFACIO G. UY
