Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings to you. We cordially invite you to participate in the 2023 USA International Business Conference which will be held in the month of January 2023.

The event is aimed at bringing together business experts from various parts of the world, to discuss the challenges of today's business environment and recommend solutions to these challenges. Delegates will have the opportunity to listen to and make presentations on several topics relating to business growth and development.

The conference is sponsored by a group of American businessmen. The organizers and sponsors will cover the cost of foreign delegates' round-trip air tickets to and from the United States. Furthermore, foreign participants who will need a visa to attend the conference will be provided assistance with visa processing with the American Embassy in their country. Attendees are however responsible for their accommodation during the course of the event.

The official language for this summit is English. However, there will be provision for digital wireless translation into several other major languages across the globe for the benefit of foreign delegates.

If you are interested, kindly indicate in a return email for the registration process.

Thank you for your consideration. We sincerely hope that you will accept our invitation, and we look forward to your participation.

Yours Sincerely,

Mrs. Kelly Brad
Member Organizing Committee
