SUBJECT : Submission of Accomplishment Report on Learner Rights and Protection

DATE : April 17, 2023

This has reference to the Memorandum from the Office of the Secretary entitled "Submission of One-Year Accomplishment Report for the 2023 State of the Nation Address" dated March 20, 2023.

Pursuant to the said memorandum, the Learner Rights and Protection Office (LRPO) has prepared accomplishment reports that concern the promotion of learner rights and protection. This includes the implementation of the advocacy materials development, conduct of skill-building activities, learner protection policy development, and learner rights awareness programs.

In order to capture the national implementation of the Department's commitment to the protection, fulfillment, protection, and respect of learner rights, the implementation made by each governance level in the Department shall be collected, consolidated, and presented. The reports shall be included in the LRPO Accomplishment Report that will be considered in the State of the Nation Address 2023.

Based on the foregoing, all Regional Offices (ROs) and Schools Division Offices (SDOs) are required to submit accomplishment reports on the implementation of programs, projects, and activities related to learner rights and protection on or before May 15, 2023. Use the template in the Enclosure.
