Dear Ma'am,

Greetings!

In support to E-Learning together with our Marketing group CKPN Enterprises together with our marketing group will bring you the platform in proving alternative learning content that will further enhance students' analytical skills and development capabilities through movies and digital content.

As entertainment and E-Learning became a challenge during this Global Pandemic of COVID 19, everything has been put to a halt, resources have been challenged and changed the whole landscape of Cinema Entertainment and E-Learning programs.

Let us not allow this GLOBAL PANDEMIC, CRISIS, and CONNECTIVITY CHALLENGE to hinder our learner's right to quality and innovative multimedia programs.

In line with this we are bringing an alternative way to access our Educational Movies. With regards to this, we are now presenting a full-length movie. Maestra. That will surely bring enjoyment and insights to your students.

Or there is an option that the students can watch a movie inside the cinema. For the student's safety they must be fully vaccinated to participate in watching inside the cinema with their parent's consent and with the permission of your good office.

Please below IATF MPHS guidelines for alert level 1:

- Minors, 17 years old and below, regardless of vaccination status are allowed to enter the cinema auditorium if companions are fully vaccinated.
- For 18 years old and above, only fully vaccinated are allowed and must present vaccination card and valid id prior to entry.
- Wearing of face mask for the entire movie run must be observed.
- Face mask may be removed while eating, drinking, but should be worn after.
- 100% seating capacity shall be accommodated inside the cinema with teachers or parents.
- No disruption of regular classes. Showing dates will be on Saturdays and Sundays.
- School Year 2023-2024

Synopsis: Maestra, a film tribute to modern day heroes, will "immortalize stories of the lives, struggles and triumphs of teachers." The film will revolve around the lives of teachers coming from different generations: respected educator and most outstanding principal Esperanza Bautista, Aeta teacher to the Aetas Gennie Panguelo and social media sensation and LET toponotcher lah Seraspi. In this film, their paths will cross in a beautiful journey of dreaming to achieve, struggling to succeed, and pursuing to find life's greater meaning – as teachers.

Venue: Robinson's Place Tacloban Cinema
