SUBJECT : PARTICIPATION IN THE TRAINING ON CHILDREN AND YOUTH DEVELOPMENT FOR SCHOOL TEACHERS UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF HER ROYAL HIGHNESS PRINCESS MAHA CHAKRI SIRINDHORN

DATE : 12 July 2023

Background

Over the past four decades, Her Royal Highness Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn has been working to improve the quality of life of children and youth in the Kingdom of Thailand. Her Royal Highness has initiated many projects addressing various aspects of development such as agriculture, nutrition, health, hygiene, vocational training, environmental conservation and cultural preservation. Her development work has reached the most disadvantaged children and families living in remote locations and under difficult living conditions without regard to race, sex, religion or nationality.

As an effective approach to children and youth development, Her Royal Highness's initiative has been expanding to improve the lives of children and youth living in neighboring countries. Through a school setting, holistic and sustainable development model has been implemented by teachers and the community with joint support from key sectors like education, agriculture, health and local administrations.

At present, there are 107 schools in ten (10) countries who have participated in the collaborative project. With the funding and technical support of Her Royal Highness, these schools have been applying Her Royal Highness's model in their contexts and have made progress in their schools. Many students now understand the value of safe food production, good nutrition, and health; they have improved their nutritional and health status.

The collaboration has expanded the benefits to other schools in at least four (4) countries, namely Bangladesh, Cambodia, the Philippines, and Viet Nam. The Office of Her Royal Highness Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn's Projects (OPSP) and Thailand International Cooperation Agency (TICA) is organizing the aforementioned training to be held at Bangkok, Thailand on August 22-30, 2023.

PRINCESS SIRINDHORN
PROJECT

A Training on Children and Youth Development for School Teachers under the Patronage of Her Royal Highness Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn
22-30 August 2023
Bangkok, Thailand

For more than 40 years, Her Royal Highness Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn has been working to improve the quality of life of children and youth in the Kingdom of Thailand. Her Royal Highness's work is now seen as a holistic and sustainable development model covering various aspects of development such as agriculture, nutrition, health, hygiene, vocational training, environmental conservation and cultural preservation. This model has been implemented in other countries through the Collaborative Project on Children and Youth Development under the Patronage of Her Royal Highness Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn. At present, there are 107 schools in 10 countries participated in the collaborative project. With the funding and technical support of Her Royal Highness, these schools have been applying Her Royal Highness's model in their contexts and have made progress in their schools. Many students now understand the value of safe food production, good nutrition, and health, they have improved their nutritional and health status. They also acquire knowledge of agriculture and environmental conservation.

Recently, this collaboration has been expanded the benefits to other schools in at least four countries, namely Bangladesh, Cambodia, the Philippines and Vietnam. Therefore, the Office of Her Royal Highness Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn's Projects and Thailand International Cooperation Agency organize this training to enable all schools to move forward more effectively.

The specific objectives of this training are:

1. To review a holistic and sustainable development model of Her Royal Highness Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn.
2. To provide the platform for sharing experiences among countries.
3. To strengthen capacities of school teachers in implementing children and youth development activities.
4. To develop a school plan.
5. To strengthen the relations and cooperation among countries.

Participants

A total of 54 participants from 4 countries are invited. These can be teachers who are assigned to be responsible for school agriculture, health teachers and a project coordinator from the Ministry of Education.
