Greetings!

The Junior People Management Association of the Philippines - UPTC Chapter is an academic organization at the University of the Philippines Tacloban College. As a premier organization of future managers and business practitioners, it aims to equip and foster growth for its members and its stakeholders in the community. It continuously commits to developing a good linkage between the academe and business world.

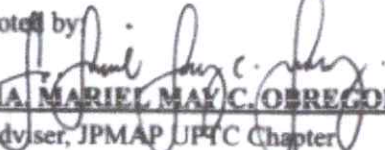

After a one-year hiatus, the JPMAP UPTC Chapter will be holding the 9th CAREER CONGRESS on April 27-28, 2024 in the region. This year's theme is, "CARCON 2024: Exploring Career Opportunities in the Professional Cosmos." This two-day conference is framed to gear up its participants - senior high school students, college students, as well as youth leaders and entrepreneurs, to become trailblazers in their chosen endeavors. It is a conference composed of relevant discussions from different career fields, such as sales, marketing, entrepreneurship, human resources, and operations management. Therefore, this conference will aid students from different institutions and successful professionals from different industries to interact in understanding the dynamics of the modern workforce.

In this light, we would like to request from your office an endorsement through a memorandum that would disseminate the event "CARCON 2024" across the region. We are hoping for a favorable response regarding this affair. Should you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact us through Genela Larido on Facebook/Messenger or 09975921821. You may also contact Judessa Alfante on Facebook/Messenger or 09456321381.

Thank you very much!

Truly yours,

JASPER REIS LOPENA
President, JPMAP UPTC Chapter
