INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON MULTIPERSPECTIVES IN EDUCATION 2025

The Far Eastern University (FEU) and the Asian Journal on Perspectives in Education (AJPE) will hold the International Conference on Multiperspectives in Education (ICOME 2025), a fully online, free, and open-to-all conference on December 3–5, 2025.

ICOME 2025 convenes educators, researchers, leaders, and policy-makers to explore how Artificial Intelligence (AI) is reshaping teaching, learning, assessment, leadership, and equity. It aims to

1. equip participants with updated knowledge of how AI is transforming theory and practice in education;
2. introduce practical tools, strategies, and frameworks for applying AI in teaching, assessment, and institutional decision-making;
3. foster professional networks among educators and researchers engaging with AI in education; and
4. stimulate scholarly contributions through research and publication.

The program features plenary talks, a panel discussion, hands-on workshops, and parallel paper presentations, with free e-certifications for eligible presenters and participants. Interested participants may visit the conference website through this link: <https://www.feu.edu.ph/icom2025>.

Participation of teachers from public and private schools shall be purely voluntary and will not hamper instructional time in compliance with the provisions of DepEd Order (DO) No. 012, s. 2025, titled Multi-Year Implementing Guidelines on the School Calendar and Activities and DO 9, s. 2005 titled Instituting Measures to Increase Engaged Time-on-Task and Ensuring Compliance Therewith, and the policy on off-campus activities stated in DO 66, s. 2017.

This is also subject to the no-collection policy as stated in Section 3 of Republic Act No. 5546 also known as An Act Prohibiting the Sale of Tickets and/or the Collection of Contributions for Whatever Project or Purpose from Students and Teachers of Public and Private Schools, Colleges and Universities (Ganzon Law), issued in DO 19, s. 2008, and reiterated in DepEd Memorandum No. 041, s. 2024.
