Subject: Request for Coordination and Participation in Donor Visit to Multigrade Schools in Southern Leyte (2-5 February 2025)

Dear Director Firma,

Warm greetings. We are pleased to inform you of an upcoming donor visit scheduled for 2-5 February, as part of the ongoing project titled “Mitigating the Learning Crisis through Digital Learning for Children in Multigrade Schools in the Philippines.” This visit aims to highlight the progress and impact of the initiative through school engagements, community dialogues, and site visits.

The visiting delegation will comprise representatives from Roche, the Swiss National Commission for UNICEF, and UNICEF Philippines, with a total of twenty (20) participants joining the visit. The itinerary includes interaction with multigrade schools, meetings with barangay officials and parents, and a site visit to the Child Development Center (CDC). These activities are designed to highlight the project's progress, foster stronger collaboration among key stakeholders, and provide donors with a deeper understanding of the unique context and lived experiences of the multigrade schools.

In line with this, we respectfully invite the following personnel to participate in the said activity:

| Name               | Designation  |
|--------------------|--|
| Amenia C. Aspa     | Education Program SupervisorRegional Multigrade Coordinator            |
| Ruth G. Poblete    | Education Program SupervisorMultigrade Coordinator, SDO Southern Leyte |
| Victor D. Dumaguit | Education Program SupervisorICT Coordinator, SDO Southern Leyte        |

Kindly inform the above-mentioned personnel of their inclusion in the activity and coordinate with them regarding the schedule and preparations. Furthermore, we kindly request your assistance in coordinating with the following schools and CDC to facilitate the visit:

- Kauswagan Elementary School in Sogod, Southern Leyte
- Sta. Maria Elementary School in Sogod, Southern Leyte
