Anchored on Article XIV, Section 1 of the 1987 Philippine Constitution and DepEd Order No. 36, s. 2013, which articulate DepEd's mission to protect and promote the right of every Filipino to quality, equitable, culture-based, and complete basic education, and in compliance with DepEd Order No. 40, s. 2014 on the Establishment, Merging, Conversion, and Naming/Renaming of Public Schools and the Separation of Public School Annexes in Basic Education, the initiative to establish a new secondary school was undertaken.

In support of this mandate, the Sangguniang Bayan of Las Navas, Northern Samar passed a Resolution No. 80, s. 2023, endorsing the establishment of Quirino National High School in the Municipality of Las Navas and formally forwarding the request to the Office of the Schools Division Superintendent, Northern Samar Division. Aljibe, CESO VI, for the establishment of Quirino National High School. This establishment aims to provide accessible secondary education to Grade VI graduates and to significantly reduce the daily transportation burden of learners who would otherwise travel approximately four (4) kilometers to the nearest secondary school.
